Week of the young child....

For us, celebrating young children is what we do every day! But, since there is a special week dedicated to celebrating young children, we will too!! We had a great week making tacos together in the classroom with paper outside and real food inside, and a whole playgroup working together to create taco masterpieces! (Thanks again Olga!)

Everyone loved them!

They say time flies, and we sure do believe it... These are just a few of our friends that will be transitioning out of Early Head Start and going to “Big” Head Start in the fall. We have watched these girls grow from infants to ‘big kids’. We will miss them but we know they are already off to a great START! We went to visit some Head Start programs in our county and had a great visit!

FREE FUN FOR ALL!

On May 17th the Alexander County Partnership for Children is hosting the annual “Spring Fling” at Matheson Park in Taylorsville. It is an evening full of fun activities for your family to enjoy outside together. Many local agencies will have booths set up with activities for children do. It will be a great night for some quality time with your family. We will be there getting our groove on too! Come join us at this awesome event.

Mark your calendars now!
